

Geography - The European Continent

Geography is the study of human and physical features of the earth. A human feature is man made (our school) and a physical feature is naturally created (the sea).

Hampshire - human and physical features

Dolceacqua - human and physical features

Key Vocabulary

European

A person or thing from Europe.

EU

The European Union (EU) is a group of 27 countries in Europe that work together and help each other. Some EU countries are France, Germany, Spain, Italy, Poland and Ireland.

Capital City

A capital city is the city in a country where the government functions.

Country

A place with its own land, people and government.

Northern Europe

Northern Europe is the northern part of Europe. It includes countries such as the United Kingdom, Norway, Sweden, Finland and Denmark.

Southern Europe

Southern Europe is the southern part of Europe. It includes countries such as Italy, Spain, Portugal, Greece and Croatia.

Key

A guide on a map that explains what the symbols and colours mean.

Hampshire

A county in the south of England.

Marine

Living in, found in or related to the sea.

Continents

One of the seven large areas of land on Earth: Asia, Africa, North America, South America, Antarctica, Europe and Antarctica.

